Evaluation

Delhi university teachers will continue to boycott the university's evaluation process till thursday in protest against auniversitygrants commission UGC notification

The teachers have been boycotting the evaluation process since may 24 because of which DU's undergraduate results may be delayed this year.

The university has written to the teachers asking them to joinback the evaluation process from sunday

- teachers boycotting evaluation process since may 24 undergraduate results may delayed year
- eachers boycotting evaluation process since may 24 undergraduate results may delayed year
- teachers boycotting evaluation process since may 24 undergraduate results may delayed year
- teachers boycotting evaluation process since may 24 undergraduate results may delayed year
- teachers boycotting evaluation process since may 24 undergraduate results may delayed year